FOOD STAMPS TO BE ISSUED WITHIN MONTH

County Welfare Recipients Are Given Official Designation

WILL BOOST FOOD BUDGETS BY HALF

Surplus Market Aids to Set Up Machinery Early Next Week

Designation of Columbiana county welfare recipients for participation in the food stamp plan which will increase food budgets by approximately 50 per cent was announced today by the Surplus Marketing Administration of the United States department of agriculture.

Official designation came from Paul H. Jordan, regional director of the Surplus Marketing Administration, who stated that William M. Walsh and William S. Fay, representatives of the agency in Cleveland area, would arrive in Columbiana county early next week to set up machinery for the issuance of food stamps and to train local officials and business people in their use.

Actual issuance of stamps will begin in approximately a month.

Will Explain Plan

Representatives Walsh and Fay and their assistants will call meetings of all grocers, their clerks, district case workers, county and local officials to explain the workings of the food stamp plan.

Issuing offices will be set up throughout the county where welfare recipients may secure stamps and food dealers will be instructed as to the procedure for their redemption.

All persons receiving direct relief or help from the various charities of the social security board will be eligible under the plan. Included also will be all eligible WPA workers.

Eligibility will be certified in all cases by an agent designated by the Columbiana county relief officials following preliminary conferences with representatives of the Surplus Marketing Administration.

Under the food stamp plan, certified persons will be permitted to purchase orange stamps in the same amount which they now receive for food for themselves and members of their families. For each dollar's worth of orange stamps so purchased, they will be given 50 cents worth of blue stamps free. The federal government pays

RELIEF DIRECTOR GOES TO COLUMBUS

A considerable decline in the city's relief case load in past months was reported today as Mrs. Robert Davis, relief director for the last two years, resigned to move to Columbus.

The four ward councilmen, who were as a relief commission, expect to assign the relief administration duties to Mrs. Ruth Beery, city hall stenographer, since the case load is not a heavy one.

At present there are 17 individuals and families on relief, compared to 55 a year ago, records show.

U.S. ROUNDS UP FOREIGN SHIPS

Goes After 2,000,000 Tons To Carry Vital War Materials Abroad

WASHINGTON, May 1.—My order of the President, the maritime commission today began rounding up "at least" 2,000,000 tons of cargo ships to form a great fleet which will carry abroad "vital war materials" now piling up in American ports, and bring in the raw stocks needed by defense industries.

President Roosevelt, himself, was reported ready to order the prompt requisitioning of refugee vessels in United States ports as one of the first steps toward the objective.

Requisitioning of 60 Axis and Danish vessels aggregating 300,000 tons would provide as a starter—approximately 15 per cent of the 2,000,000 tons the President called for "at the earliest possible moment" to transport the raw materials required by American defense industries and the war supplies needed by nations resisting aggression.

War Materials Delayed

"Vital war materials are piling up at the ports or delayed at the factories," Mr. Roosevelt declared. "We must supply those ships and at once."

The President emphasized the urgent need for increased shipping facilities last night in instructions to Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the maritime commission.

Land was directed to "secure the service of at least 2,000,000 tons of merchant shipping" and to plan operations so as to "make their cargo space immediately effective in accomplishing our objective of all-out aid to the democracies."

Vessels of all types must be taken from existing or proposed trade routes, the President declared, to haul vitally needed defense and war supplies across the high seas, and the United States merchant marine must be expanded with increased

U.S. STUDYING PLAN TO SEND ARMS TO EGYPT

Naval Patrols In Indian Ocean Indicated As Likely Step

AXIS DEVELOPING SUEZ CANAL THREAT

Gulf of Aden and Red Sea Are Eliminated From Combat Zone

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The rapidly developing Axis threat to British's position astride the strategic Suez canal caused speculation today in diplomatic quarters on the likelihood of U. S. navy patrol operations in the Indian ocean along the lanes traveled by shipments of lease-lend supplies that may be bound for Egypt via the Gulf of Aden-Red Sea route.

The belief was expressed that such shipments were highly probable in view of the known British needs in the Middle East, particularly after the admitted heavy losses of equipment suffered by the expeditionary force in the Battle of Greece.

No Official Ruling

Since the elimination three weeks ago of the combat zone which closed the Gulf of Aden and the Red Sea to American shipping, there has been no official ruling as to whether U. S. merchantmen would be permitted to carry strictly military cargoes over that route.

At the time, however, President Roosevelt indicated he saw no reason such shipments could not be delivered to Egypt, a technical neutrality issue. He made it plain that the administration would not be over-sensitive on the point of war materials delivered to a neutral port in American bottoms ultimately found their way into the hands of a belligerent.

Regardless of the final ruling on the question of transporting military supplies in American ships, diplomatic sources pointed out that at least one American shipping company already has made application for government permission to operate to Egyptian ports via the Red Sea.

Should this line, with a fleet of more than 20 freighters, begin operations, informed sources said, it would come under the protection for which Mr. Roosevelt spoke on April 14 when he told his press conference it was the law that this government

COUNTY PRAISED IN SEAL DINNER

First In State, Reports Ohio Aid At Dinner In Lisbon

Columbiana county, second highest in the state in Christmas Seal sales for 1940, was lauded for its activities by Ben F. Knepper, field representative of the Ohio State Public Health league, at a dinner meeting of the County Public Health league Wednesday night in the Wick hotel at Lisbon.

The chairman who supervised the campaign in the various townships were guests.

First In State

Knepper reported that the county was having the state in counties having a population of 50,000 or more. The sale of the Christmas seals last December netted the Columbiana county league $8,800, 80 per cent of which was retained by the league for use in combating tuberculosis.

Fifteen per cent was turned over to the state organization and 5 per cent to the national association to carry on research and educational programs.

Knepper declared last night that, despite the gains made in controlling tuberculosis, the disease still remains the foremost cause of death of persons between the ages of 15 and 45. He said the "T. B." death toll last year in the nation was 65,000 and in Ohio 3,000.

Students Given Awards

Joseph Bishop, executive secretary of the county league, presided at the meeting during which awards were given to three high school students who wrote the best essays on the subject, "The Christmas Seal at Work".

A $5 first prize went to Ellen Strabley of Salineville, $3 second prize to Wayne Brubaker of Columbiana and $2 third prize to Elsie Neishleb of Fairfield. The presentations were made by Atty George L. Lafferty, general secretary of the league.

Newsman Larry Allen Tells Story Of Tripoli Blasting; Convinced British Will Win

(Editor's Note: Correspondent Larry Allen has had a grandstand seat for the past year at the battle for supremacy in the Mediterranean. His courage and daring have won admiration and respect of British officers and sailors alike for he has stayed with the fleet through every major engagement it has fought, sometimes getting only a few hours between trips.)

BY LARRY ALLEN

ALEXANDRIA—(Correspondence of the Special News Service)—For almost a year I have had a grandstand seat on the bridges, conning towers and signal decks of Britain's mightiest battleships, speediest cruisers, destroyer and aircraft carriers watching the struggle for supremacy of what Mussolini once proudly proclaimed mare nostrum—"our sea."

From the moment I was the first accredited correspondent with the fleet I thought the personnel had what it took to win a sea war.

Now I am convinced the British have whatever is needed in courage, resourcefulness, iron determination and skill to bombard the enemy bases, and perhaps to wipe the Italian navy from the Mediterranean and the Nazi and Italian bombers out of the sky.

This calls for long chances, but the British are taking them.

They sent warships dashing over the sea at top speed, hoping and praying to contact the Italian fleet, unaware of the enemy's naval air strength and not caring.

The Battle of Matapan may have permanently extinguished the glimmering hopes of Il Duce for making the remnants of his once proud war fleet a decisive factor in the Mediterranean.

His Worst Scare

Earlier, I saw Air Marshal Hermann Goering's handpicked dive-bombing pilots try to scare the British fleet out of the Mediterranean by making one of the most punishing attacks of war history on the aircraft carrier Illustrious.

She got hits from thousand-pound bombs.

That gave me the greatest fright of my life.

But her officers and men brought her into port under her own power after that hell had ended. Their

BRITISH LAND MORE TROOPS TO GUARD OIL

New Contingent Arrives In Kingdom of Iraq Today

SHIPS TURN GUNS ON AXIS IN AFRICA

London Reports 3,000 Men Killed and Wounded In Battle of Greece

(By Associated Press)

Great Britain landed more troops in the rich Mediterranean oil kingdom of Iraq today, turned the big guns on her fleet on Axis columns in North Africa and virtually completed the removal of 48,000 B. E. F. soldiers from the lost campaign in Greece.

The London radio said the arrival of a second British contingent in Iraq had provoked "certain movements on the part of the Iraq army which might be regarded as a threat to the security of the British air base at Habanya."

Fear "Incident"

"The Iraq administration is being pressed by his majesty's government to move these troops as soon as possible so as to avoid the risk of any incident," the radio said.

Britain has heavy investments in the Iraq oil fields, which might become the target of a Nazi attack to provide fuel for Adolf Hitler's mechanized armies.

The British admiralty announced that the fleet executed a "successful bombardment" of Axis troops and supplies in the Ain El Gazala area of Libya, 30 miles west of the beleaguered British garrison at Tobruk.

Official Australian reports said Hitler's conquering legions suffered "colossal losses in men and machines" in the Greek campaign, while the British war office declared more than 80 per cent of the 60,000 B. E. F. troops who fought to defend the Aegean kingdom had been rescued by sea.

Removal Still Under Way

A communique by the British Middle East command indicated that at least some of the 9,000 remaining men were still being removed from the bullet-spattered beaches of the Grecian Peloponnese.

Total B. E. F. casualties were listed at 3,900 killed and wounded.

Australia's Acting Prime Minister A. W. Fadden, in Melbourne, announced the "colossal" German casualties. He gave no specific figures.

AGREE TO PASS MAJOR BILLS

Republican Majority In Senate to Approve Legislation

COLUMBUS, May 1.—An agreement by the 19-member Republican majority of the Ohio senate today assured passage of the $352,345,009 biennial appropriation bill and two other major measures in the upper chamber.

The appropriation bill, carrying $477,700 more for operation of the state government in 1941-42 than the amount fixed by the house, was up for a vote in the senate today.

Other Legislation

The two other principal pieces of legislation are:

Liberalization of unemployment insurance benefits, scheduled for a vote tomorrow, and

The coal mine safety and inspection bill, to be acted on Monday night.

Meanwhile, Frank E. Whittemore, Republican floor leader in the senate, asserted he believed the legislature could no a "cleaner, neater job" by continuing its working sessions until May 14. Developments early next week, however, will determine the senate's attitude on the house's desire to quit work May 8.

The Republican senators, in caucus last night, decided to let a senate-house conference committee adjust differences over a $1,000,000 increase for university building improvements in the appropriation measure.

Whittemore expressed belief, though, that most of the $1,000,000—if not all—would be deleted and the amount restored to such necessities as poor relief, mine inspection, minimum wage inspectors and bang's disease eradication.

Bricker Serves Notice

Gov. John W. Bricker has served notice that all the universities' building funds would be vetoed if the extra allocation was not withdrawn.

The unemployment insurance bill, unanimously recommended for passage by the senate commerce and labor committee, is estimated to increase workers' benefits $7,000,000 a year while reducing by $9,000,000 to $11,000,000 annually the payroll taxes which employers are required to pay into the insurance fund.

The taxes, now 1 to 4 per cent, would be cut to 3 to 5 per cent; a benefit minimum of $5 a week

DRY APRIL SEEN AS CROPS THREAT

Only .73-Inch Rainfall Is Observed During Dusty Month

Columbiana and Mahoning county district farmers are praying these days—praying for rain—and plenty of it.

The month of April came to a close yesterday with a record as the driest April on record, according to the statistics kept by L. H. Copeland, district U. S. cooperative weather observer at Millport.

Last month, too, compared with April of 1921, which was the warmest on record, with a mean temperature of 52.6 degrees. Last month's mean reading was 52.4, only two tenths of a degree difference. A year ago it was 42.6.

April, which had no snow at all, experienced only .73 inch precipitation. Most of the farmers' oats crops were planted in dust. Observers Copeland reports.

Water Table Low

Stock has been fed on winter rations all month and wheat fields are showing the effect of the drought. The water table is unusually low for this time of the year, Copeland said. Cisterns are dry and springs and streams are low.

The year, itself, is short five degrees in normal temperature. Thermometers hit a high of 84 degrees April 19 while a low of 22 degrees was recorded April 3. The month had 65 per cent sunshine, the normal for April being 45 per cent. There were 14 clear days, 10 partly cloudy and six cloudy during the month. Between night and day the change in temperature averaged 30 degrees.

Precipitation in April, 1940, totaled 5.16 inches, nearly four and one-half inches more than last month. The season, on the other hand, was two weeks behind schedule and no plowing was done by farmers until the close of the month.

The wettest April on record was in 1901, with a 7.39 inch precipitation. (This was the year of "the big snowfall.")

WHAT DO WE GET OUT OF IT?

Sometimes it seems as though the official voices might be warning Americans about the privations in store for them not wisely but too well. So much talk about tax burdens—Jesse Jones has just forecast a national debt of $90,000,000,000—has its sound purpose, but the shock of getting prepared for the highest taxes in history could be made more bearable if accompanied by a prospectus of the highest national purpose in history.

First of all, of course, the United States is spending money and preparing to spend even vaster sums than yet have been mentioned for its own national security. In this respect, the cost of becoming a military powerful nation may be likened to the cost of insurance. Up to now, the United States has been lucky. The cost of maintaining security has been deceptively low; it has not reflected the danger lying in wait for a wealthy country whose resources were coveted by jealous powers. This fortunate situation has been changed suddenly and radically by the rise of warrior nations believing in the credo that might makes right.

Great Britain, whose navy has stood as America's first line of defense ever since the Monroe doctrine committed the United States to defense of the western hemisphere, has ceased to be a dependable buffer between the United States and other nations seeking spoils and has become instead, an harassed power in grave danger of dissolution. The same threat of danger that seemed to have disappeared when the Allies won World War I, causing the United States to abandon its newly acquired land army and even to diminish its navy, has arisen again in a more frightening form than it assumed at any time during Germany's previous bid for world hegemony.

National purpose is more than defensive however. That would not be enough to muster support for the tremendous cost of national defense. Even the British, living in a state of siege, dare to think of some higher purpose than saving their own skins. The Germans, likewise, are not asked by their political leaders to believe they are sacrificing their lives and property merely to stave off defeat. They have been offered a reward, not the kind of reward which Germany's opponents believe is just, but nevertheless a reward.

What is it, then, that Americans stand to get out of the cost of preparing to accept their destiny as the strongest potential nation?

It is not territory, nor is it the power to rule defeated peoples by remote control. Rather, it is the privilege of acting as guardian and exemplar for a structure of society in which autocracy shall be outlawed. It is the privilege of being able to say some day, in the midst of heavy responsibilities, that the dream of a society built on justice and Christianity which was brought to flower in the American wilderness was not allowed to perish in the face of autocratic challenge.

That is a privilege worth bidding for at an even higher price than has been named yet. The price that the autocracies are willing to pay to effectuate their vision of a world organized on the pattern of slave and master must be met and exceeded. All the men who have died for the cause of liberty down through the ages stand witness that there is no price too high.

In an eastern newspaper a few days ago a woman reader explained that she was tired of listening to addresses by government officials urging the people to "awake, prepare, arouse yourselves to the danger that confronts you." She was, she said, awake and aroused—had been awake and aroused for a long time. What she wanted was more evidence that the leaders of the nation were awake and aroused. "They can do something about it," she concluded; "unfortunately we can't."

And what they can do about it specifically is to remind the people that there's something more to what is going on than ever higher taxation.

JUDGMENT SUSPENDED

Few bothered about it at the time, and it's forgotten now, but the Olympic games scheduled for Helsinki last summer never came off, for obvious reasons.

Judgment is suspended, but if the hopeful notion that men can learn to love one another by playing games survives this latest outburst of bloody fury, it can survive anything.

Starting with revival of the Olympic games in 1896, this has been the era of high-pressure goodwill. Even governments, catching the spirit, have pelted each other with daisies. The English calmed their were in cahoots with their brothers in Germany. The French dropped their guard a little—though it was too much. The merry Italian and the busy Japanese were honored for their good qualities. Even the gloomy Russian turned out to have a heart of gold.

Possibly it did no harm, but the upshot to date is anything but good—the two most devastating wars in history, the "fifth columnist" who uses friendship to knife his host in the back, the saboteur who understands everything that goes on in the other fellow's country, the propagandist who even knows what the other fellow is thinking. It's a lot worse than it used to be when no one knew what lived on the other side of the hill, but suspected it would be dragons. No one ever itched to start any funny business with a dragon.

A news photo of Georges Clemenceau's eight-month-old great-grandson shows him to be so much like his great-grandpappy as to cause one to wish he were head of the Vichy government.

Before choosing blossom queens for 1941 it would be interesting to know how many of last year's yield have been overtaken by matrimony.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, May 2.

ACCORDING to the general trend of the lunar transits this period is one of major expansion and advancement, with strokes of the unexpected and unpredictable characterizing all mundane affairs. Unforeseen change as well as outstanding developments of a radical or reformatory nature may be impending, and the individual life prepared to assume large responsibility and leadership in the new order may be greatly benefited. In a routine way this day will bring due recognition and reward for service well-rendered, with private satisfactions.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of major importance in the march of human destiny. There may be crises and high adventures and romance to which the prepared life will respond with much expansion, advancement and personal gratification. There may be unpredictable and spectacular visitations plunging the life into new walks and fresh ventures, of a creative and dramatic scope beyond the power to analyze. Minor anxieties should melt away.

A child born on this day should have fine sterling qualities for a successful and happy life, its real worth finding proper rewards and personal gratifications.

There is a dawning realization that what goes up must come down, on somebody's head, and what is spent by the government has to be paid for by the taxpayer.

An old-timer is one who can remember when people didn't brag about their ancestors. They had family albums and knew what the old codgers looked like.

The R-month rule is nothing to Hitler, and he is doing his best to make the world his oyster by May.

It was a mistake to let sensible driving pass out with the horse and buggy.

THE USE OF MEDICINAL HERBS

How and Why Discussed By Dr. Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
Long years ago in the homes of our ancestors in their more or less scanty libraries, one book was almost certain to be there. It was a book describing the plants which had medicinal properties. These were called herbals and they have no welcome, in many instances.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

The object of treasured collection by book collectors of all kinds, particularly in the history of medicine. One—Gerarde's Herbal—is often praised as an example of sixteenth century English prose and will be found mentioned in most histories of English literature.

It is easy to see why in primitive days these books were treasured. I am speaking now of two or three hundred years ago when most of our ancestors lived in the country and wild plants that they found were regarded as objects of reverence and awe. Many superstitions grew up around them, as around the mandrake. They were, of course, useful, but this depended on a considerable knowledge of their qualities. In all primitive countries herbals are found, even among the Aztecs.

In an old Chinese herbal, dated about 1289, there is the first representation we have of the banana plant. The Chinese used the banana for many purposes, which were strictly medicinal and not dietetic. Curiously enough, they used it in all states of depletion and in convalescence from long illnesses, and although they did not know it, the properties of the banana are very well adapted for these purposes. In all such conditions, no matter what the cause, a high caloric, high vitamin diet is indicated, and this must also include food that is easy to digest. Bananas, when fully ripe, meet all these requirements. They are very nutritious and their palatability, for one reason, makes them very digestible.

As far as vitamin content is concerned, there are vitamins A, B1, C and G to a considerable extent in bananas.

Loss of Voice
What is the reason for a man's occasionally suffering from complete or partial loss of voice for days and weeks at a time?

I don't know whether my correspondent wants me to express an opinion about Mr. Ace, or not. Sudden complete loss of voice which lasts for days or weeks and then as suddenly returns, raises a strong suspicion of it being hysteria—hysterical paralysis of the vocal cords. Mr. Ace's domestic difficulties indicate to me that this is exactly the cause in his case.

Both the loss of the voice and its return are the result of emotional shock in hysterical paralysis. Treatment is entirely by psychological methods.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

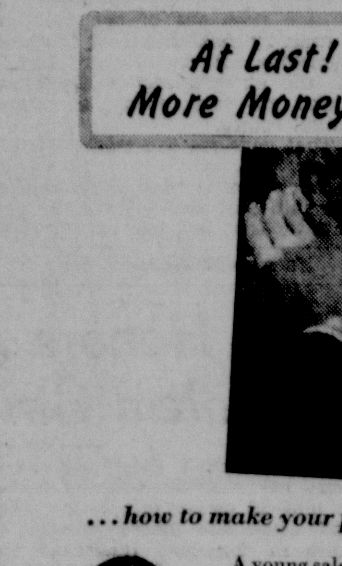

M. A. H.:—"Is a hernia in a small child dangerous? My little girl is one year old and has a hernia on her navel, which causes it to swell up and get hard and blue when she cries. She is just beginning to walk and when she stands it protrudes considerably."

Answer—Small hernias in the navel are very common and usually close up without any special treatment. The way you describe the present case, it seems to me it is a rather severe and advanced type and it might require surgery. It is well, however, to wait until a little later when the muscles are more mature, at which time the chances of permanent relief are better. However, I would advise you to take the advice of a surgeon.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 E. 45th st., New York. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

At Last! We'll Have More Money for Ourselves

...how to make your pay check go farther
A young salesman with a good job and a bright future was anxious to get ahead. His income was $165 a month... his outgo, $75 for bills and debts alone. We made him a cash loan, to square up everything and cut his payments to $18 a month. He found it easy to pay off his loan. Now he says he'll be back again soon to finance a "big business deal that's on the fire."
"We like to see you make your credit work for your profit and advantage."
John J. Lewis
HOW MUCH IS READY MONEY WORTH?
$100 repayable in regular monthly payments for one year costs less than the price of a pack of gum a day.
$300 repayable in regular monthly payments for 18 months costs less than cigarettes at a pack a day. Fair enough!

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

FAT GIRLS

Here's a Tip For You

All over America Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free-from-fat figure that seldom fails to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take 1/2 teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast; cut out pastries and fatty meats — go light on white bread, potatoes, butter and cream—that's all. Do this every morning. In three weeks get on the scales and note how many pounds of fat have vanished. Notice also that you've gained in energy, your skin seems clearer, your eyes sparkle with more glorious health—you feel younger in body, keener in mind.

Leading druggists America over sell Kruschen Salts, (a famous English formula) plain or new effervescent—sparkling—pleasant. You can always get it at any druggist. Try one bottle; lasts 4 weeks and costs but little. If not supremely satisfied, money back.

would be established and the maximum hiked from $15 to $10; the waiting period of applicants for benefits would be reduced from three weeks to two, and the controversial system of computing the average weekly wage would be replaced by a statutory formula.

Committee members said the new formula would help increase the average weekly benefits from $10.25 to $11.50.

The mining bill, embracing recommendations made by a governor's committee as a result of disasters which claimed more than 100 lives, would require operators to inaugurate operating practices and install improved machinery to reduce the hazards of gas and dust explosions.

Need House Approval

Both the unemployment insurance and mining proposals would have to go to the house for concurrence.

A 10-bill calendar in the house today included the uniform traffic code, already approved by the senate, and a measure providing indefinite employment for school teachers after three years' probation.

The house yesterday approved a measure by Rep. James H. McElhane (R-Scioto) requiring rural voters to sign the poll book when they cast their ballots. McElhane said that the proposed law would discourage illegal voting. The bill now goes to the house.

The house defeated a bill which would have permitted Christian Science practitioners and other faith healers to charge for their services. The vote was 63 to 54, with 70 favorable votes required.

The senate refused to concur in a house amendment to a bill exempting personal property owners from payment of taxes for years prior to 1931.

The senate-approved bill creating a state authority to issue $20,000,000 in bonds for welfare institution improvements was recommended unanimously for passage by the house judiciary committee.

The strike would affect Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Guernsey, Holmes and Harrison counties.

UWOC demands include a 20-cent-an-hour wage boost, a signed agreement and exclusive bargaining rights.

U. S. STUDIES PLAN TO SHIP WAR AID

ment protect its ships wherever they go, so long as they stay out of the combat zones defined in the neutrality act.

Arming Not Discussed
Naval men said the obvious methods of protection were arming the merchantmen, establishing naval patrols or giving the ships naval escorts. Mr. Roosevelt told reporters, however, that he knew of no discussion for arming the vessels.

This remark of the President's coupled with the known fact of Axis raider operations both in the Pacific and Indian oceans made it seem probable, in the opinion of informed persons, that some type of naval protection would be afforded.

While this discussion of patrol activity progressed, opponents of the administration foreign policy considered fresh efforts to get anti-convoys resolutions before the senate for action.

They lost one skirmish yesterday when the senate foreign relations committee shelved proposals on the subject.

In the speculation on lease-lend supplies for General Wavell's army in the near east, one belief expressed was that Britain was looking to the United States to provide, on a smaller scale, the same help she extended after the retreat from Dunkirk. Then, American arms and munitions—hurriedly rushed abroad—helped re-equip British forces which had lost virtually all equipment and stores in the disaster on the continent.

ELEVEN ENTRIES SET TO START IN KENTUCKY DERBY

Our Boots, Porter's Cap, and Whirlaway High In Advance Betting

(By Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—War news was all but forgotten as the sidelines today as this horse loving community plunged headlong into its annual guessing game.

It was: Who will win the $75,000 Kentucky Derby over Churchill Downs' classic mile and a quarter late Saturday afternoon?

Eleven three-year-olds, survivors of an original field of 112, are expected to answer the call to "Boots and Saddles" around 5:45 p. m. Eastern Standard time.

There's Our Boots, winner of the rich 1940 Belmont Futurity which never has sent its victor on to capture the derby; Whirlaway, top money winning two-year-old of last year; Florio, good enough to whip Fiddlers' top three-year-olds in the Flamingo at Hialeah Park and Porter's Cap, who showed the way to the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby and Chesapeake Stakes at Havre De Grace.

All but Dispose figure to be high in the wagering—Our Boots because of his fine showing in the Bluegrass Stakes at Keeneland; Whirlaway because of his fast closing second to Blue Pair in Tuesday's Derby trial and Porter's Cap because of his Santa Anita and Chesapeake triumphs and the ownership of Charles S. (Lucky) Howard.

Lady Luck has been running for Howard since the west coast automobile dealer purchased Seabiscuit a few years back and there are many who think she'll be on hand again to help Buddy Haas boot the Cap home.

Dispose, however, picked up some of his lost support yesterday when he stepped the derby distance in the fast time of 2:06 3-5 under the watchful eye of Maxie Hirsch, who saddled Bold Venture to win in 1936.

LIVERPOOL PADS PRISONERS' BILL

Responsible for More Than Half of March Charge Against County

LISBON, May 1.—Sheriff George Hayes today submitted an analysis of the March $822.20 board bill for Columbiana county prisoners housed in the Mahoning county jail, revealing that the city of East Liverpool is responsible for over half of that bill, the majority of its prisoners being sentenced on charges of intoxication.

During the month, East Liverpool prisoners were boarded at a cost of $489 to the county, Sheriff Hayes stated, while others were: Salem, $54.80; Lisbon, $16.20; East Palestine, $4; Columbiana, $5; grand jury prisoners, $189; probate court prisoners, $60.20, and prisoners from justice of the peace courts, $4.

There were 28 prisoners placed in jail in March, and a total of 66 were boarded during the month, to which 4,111 meals were served, and for which 1,370 1-3 days were charged at 60 cents per day. The cost of transporting the prisoners and from Youngstown, exclusive of the sheriff's or deputies' time was listed at $106.80, which, added to a local restaurant's bill of $16.40 for feeding prisoners awaiting transportation to Youngstown, makes a total cost of $945.40 for March.

Sheriff Hayes stated that out of the 28 new prisoners taken to jail, all except three were admitted and registered there after courthouse closing hours, and that 84 hours were consumed during the month in transporting of prisoners to and from the Mahoning prison.

NEWSMAN TELLS OF BLAST ON TRIPOLI

Lauds British Courage and Daring, Convinced They'll Win

one burning ambition was to "make them pay" for that bombing.

Nests of German dive bombers were blasted off their Sicilian bases. I think the British are definitely taking the measure of the Nazi bombers.

This was strikingly illustrated by the last trip the fleet made to Tripoli, Italy's strongly fortified base in northern Africa.

Formations of enemy planes frequently attempted to get close enough to bomb the warships. Not a single bomb was dropped but British fighters shot down seven planes.

Tripoli unquestionably was one of the most daring attacks in naval history.

Every war technician knows that a fleet usually is no match for expertly manned coastal defenses.

The fact that Tripoli had a long string of six to twelve-inch batteries, that the harbor waters were heavily mined, and that there was great danger from mass Nazi and Italian air attacks on the warships didn't deter Admiral Cunningham from his resolve to hand the Barbary coast enemy den a dose of lead it wouldn't soon forget.

From the conning tower of the heaviest armed battleship, I watched a thousand tons of high explosive and armor-piercing shells flung at Tripoli harbor in a thunderous 45 minute barrage so terrific I thought the minimum personal effect would be a bad case of shell-shock. My half-blinded eyes were seared by great flashes from the fire of guns.

This was at the firing end. The tremendous, crushing force of shells exploding in Tripoli can only be imagined.

British gunners shoved shells in the long, grey barrels of the 15-inch guns with machine-like speed and precision.

They love action and thought it great fun even when two enemy shore batteries pumped six-inchers swishing over the turrets.

Tripoli was the biggest fireworks display I have seen in my travels with the battleship.

I shall never forget the thousands of white splinters of flame leaping skyward from anti-aircraft batteries, the long, snaky links of multicolored bursting tracer bullets, the "flaming onions" of anti-aircraft fire, and the yellow masses of flame gushing from battleships' guns.

Nor this—twelve hours after the last 15-inch shells were fired, I touched the gun barrels. They were still hot.

So was Tripoli.

Dodgers And Cardinals Fighting For National League Lead

BROOKLYN TAKES NINE STRAIGHT, BUT LAGS BEHIND

Cardinals Have Advantage Because of Playing Fewer Games

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National league race is in its typical spring squeeze, tighter than the cover on a baseball.

The Brooklyn Dodgers climbed into first place Monday by winning their seventh straight game. Tuesday they won their eighth and slipped into a tie. Yesterday they won their ninth in succession and dropped into second place.

In Reverse

This would seem to be going full speed forward in reverse and that may be just as clear as trying to explain the actual jam now involving the Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Brooklyn has won 13 games and lost 4 for a .765 percentage while St. Louis has a record of 10 and 3 for .769. Actually, on the basis of games won and lost, the Dodgers are in front of the Cardinals by a full game, but because the Cardinals have played fewer games, and lost less, they have an advantage in percentage.

This edge will continue to accrue to St. Louis as long as it wins, even though the Dodgers extend their streak.

Johnny Vander Meer put the brakes on Brooklyn for seven innings yesterday. Scattering three singles and striking out eight while his teammates routed Kirby Higbee for a 3-0 lead. But in the eighth inning Dixie Walker and Joe Medwick hit home runs, sandwiched around a walk, to tie the score and in the ninth Mickey Owen and Pee-wee Reese smacked a pair of doubles for a run to win 4-3.

The Cardinals hopped on Hal Schumacher for a dozen hits, including homers by Country Slaughter and Johnny Mize, to whip the New York Giants again 6-4.

Cubs Blast Bees

The Chicago Cubs clustered four runs in the first and four more in the eighth to blast the Boston Bees (beg pardon, the Braves) 9-4, with the help of four Boston errors.

Cy Blanton, a castoff of the Pittsburgh Pirates, kept ten hits scattered and struck out six as the Phillies, pummeled the Pirates 8-4.

The Cleveland Indians extended their winning string to six by overtaking the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 on Ken Keltner's two-run homer with two out in the ninth inning.

The Detroit Tigers finally roused from their hitting slump to roar out with 18 hits and subdue the Boston Red Sox 12-8.

The Chicago White Sox held out second place in the junior circuit by beating the Washington Senators 5-1.

Joe Gordon and Marius Russo led the New York Yankees to vengeance against the St. Louis Browns, 7-1. Russo scattered eight hits and shutout his foes for six stanzas. Joe Gordon made four of the Yankees' 14 blows, including a homer, and drove in four runs.

NEW BOYS' TEAM IS PLANNED HERE

Salem boys between 14 and 19 who are interested in playing on a softball team are invited to attend an organization meeting and practice session of the Blue Sox Juniors on Saturday afternoon at Tolerton's field, Depot rd., at 1:30.

BOWLING RESULTS

Citizens Ice increased their lead in the Pastime league as they made a clean sweep of their series with the Wright Southpaws last night on the Grate alleys.

Tied for second place are the Salem Labels and Firestone Tires, each with the same number of wins but three more losses than the Icemen. The Labels counted a healthy 2714 total on games of 940, 860 and 914, but lost the second game to Albrights when the Realtors counted 908. Firestones took three when Martin Tires forfeited. Eatons, in fourth place, were able to win only two from Schoians, who won the last game by two pins.

Tyson's grabbed three from Loudons and Hainans topped Sponsellers two out of three.

Among the 200 bowlers last night were Bill Pauline with 233, Earl Hilbrand 214, Wink Miller 220, Earl Grate 200, Dick Albright 217, Mark Klingensmith 211.

The Pastime league schedule continues two more weeks, with one postponed match between Citizens Ice and Wrights to be bowled.

Masonic Ladies league competitors brought their season to an end last night with Kresges finishing on top by a margin of two full games over Ohio Edison. The Edison's had a chance to go into the lead in the windup engagements, had the Kresges faltered.

They took three in a row from Mullins, but the Kresges quint was up on its game, too, and polished off the Salem News, three in a row, to stay in front.

Warks took two from the Benkerettes and the Eagles two from the Elks. S. Hanna of Warks turned in a 216 performance in her second game and Ramsey a 213 in her second, also.

The league wound up in a blaze of glory and a riot of color and design—it was the annual costume party, started a year ago as an event for the final night's bowling.

Majority of the feminine bowlers were attired in fanciful and grotesque raiment.

PINCH HITTER IS NEW FAVORITE OF CLEVELAND FANS

Murray Howell Makes Good In Four Times at Bat for Tribe

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, May 1.—Chunky Murray Howell, 33-year-old rookie outfielder, is the current "People's Choice" of Cleveland baseball fans.

He came through for a fourth consecutive time as a pinch-hitter yesterday and as a result the Indians edged Philadelphia 6 to 5 on a brilliant three-run rally in the ninth inning.

Two men were out when the 205-pound slugger stepped to the plate. Lester McCrabb, the Athletics' "control" pitcher, worked so carefully on Howell that he walked him.

Then with McCrabb unmoved and the Indians confident, Roy Weatherly doubled and Ken Keltner homered to climax the "Merriwell" finish.

The triumph ran Cleveland's victory string to six and put it up to Bob Feller today to make it seven in the finale with Philadelphia.

Connie Mack picked Jack Knott to stop the Redskins.

Press box observers called the Howell-Weatherly-Keltner rally one of the most thrilling ever staged at historic League Park. The circuit blow was Keltner's only hit of the game, but Weatherly earlier rapped a single and a home run.

Jim Bagby started for the Indians, but gave way to a pinch-hitter in the sixth. Ken Jungels and Harry Eisenstat finished, with the latter receiving credit for the victory. Despite the use of three Cleveland hurlers the Athletics got only seven hits, including a double and a home run by Benny McCoy.

Heath Starts Scoring

When Bagby left the game, Cleveland was trailing 3 to 0. Jeff Heath's home run netted the first run in the seventh, with Weatherly's four-base blow, Lou Boudreau's double and singles by Hal Trosky and Heath adding two more in the semi-final inning.

The Athletics meanwhile picked up two runs in the eighth when McCoy drove one of Jungels' fast balls over the fence to score McCrabb.

Boston arrives tomorrow for a two-game series, followed by Washington and New York.

CLAREMONT, N. H.—Showing appreciation after the fire department saved his home, E. J. Rosier gave Chief Allan Palmer and 500 firemen a dinner.

Lover Come Back

By BARRETT WILLOUGHBY

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

By late afternoon of the Captain's birthday, the spacious old paneled rooms of Echo House were ready for the party, save for flowers. These, Kemp had asked permission to send.

Sandra was in the kitchen having a last word with old Jodin, the cook, when Polena ushered in Kemp, his blond face, smiling and eager, showing above an armload of long pasteboard boxes. Behind him, similarly laden, came Ikeda.

"The florists are coming, hurry, hurry!" chanted Kemp. Open them up, Ikeda—here, on this table. That's it. Like 'em, lady?"

"Oh!" Sandra's eyes were wide with surprise and delight. "Hot-house roses—from Seattle! Yellow, with sunset hearts!" She caught up an armful and held them against her face. "Kemp, they're exquisite, and you—you're a darling. Jodin—Polena—look! Bring vases and we'll fill them right now."

"Why all the excitement?" Liane sauntered in holding a crimson velvet robe about her. "Roses! Gosh, Kemp, you must have restored some florist's faith in Santa Claus. But—with my luck! That color won't go with my rose crimoline."

At the end of half an hour all the vases were filled. "Now, everybody," Sandra announced happily, "we'll carry them into the drawing room and place them."

Sandra was at the piano adjusting a silver bowl when she stopped suddenly, and stood listening with side-turned head. "I seem to hear something dripping..." she moved vaguely, following the sound which finally drew her to the door of the library. She looked inside.

"Good heavens! Polena! Kemp! Quick! The place is flooded!"

There was a concerted rush for the door Liane drew. "A deluge—but definitely! Coming through the ceiling. The pipes must have—O-m-l-and!" she yelled in sudden recollection. Hoisting her velvet draperies, she raced for the stairs. "I left my bath running!"

Later, in the dripping confusion of the library, Polena flung down the cloth with which she was wiping some books and faced her mistress. "Miss Sandra, it's no use trying to get this room dried out before the guests come."

"But what can we do? What can we do?" cried Sandra.

Kemp came over and placed his hands on her shoulders. "Don't look so tragic, dear. Why not just lock the room and forget about it—until tomorrow?"

Sandra surveyed the damp walls, the empty shelves, the wet books, the soggy roll of carpet. "Yes, I suppose it's the only thing to do," she admitted with a dejected sigh. "Lock both doors, Polena, so no one can stray into this mess from either the drawing room or the reception room. Leave a key somewhere handy, so I shan't have to bother you in case I need to run in here for something. Or have you a spare key?"

"Yes, Miss Sandra. These doors open to any passkey. I'll leave one for you behind the potted fern in the reception room."

Evening, Echo House, high on its shadowy island, was gay with lights and laughter as Captain O'Moore's birthday party got under way.

Outside the Glory's channthouse, on a coil of rope, sat Shady Lane. His round eyes surveyed the gathering dusk with a look of houndlike melancholy.

"Certainly is a fine night for that old pirate's party," he sighed wistfully.

Jean Reynall, pacing the deck nearby, made no answer.

Shady's lonesome gaze yearned toward the blazing lights of Echo House. Each window up there was a rectangle of gleaming gold. High above all, the white beam of the cupola beacon thrust upward through the tranquil night, as if in far-flung invitation to the festivities below.

Along the line of the causeway, and up the flagged steps to the great front door, moved silhouetted figures in the swaying hoop skirts, the tricorne, and the towering beavers of a bygone day. And occasionally, as if wafted from the same era, faint strains of a Russian waltz drifted out on the still, forest-scented air.

"Those were the days, Jean!" Shady observed. "A man could really strut his stuff, decked out in a ruffled shirt, a peruke, and a sword."

Jean still made no response. Their years of close companionship on land and sea had taught Shady not to expect conversation when Jean was troubled.

O'Moore, the old devil, had certainly dealt them a terrific jolt when he wassled out of that fish contract, and left them holding the empty cans.

That Jean had countered by signing up the Inland fleet, was small consolation. Shady, driving his crew, had just finished two days and a night of frenzied endeavor amongst that hodgepodge, trying to patch leaky hulls, antiquated rotors, and rotten nets. The result was anything but reassuring; and all day Jean had been shooting wires up and down the coast to other fish operators.

"Shady," Jean paused before the big engineer. "The replies to all my wires are in—and the answer is, 'No.' O'Moore made no idle threat when he said he'd stop me from buying fish anywhere in Alaskan waters. He's out to smash us, Shady; and he'll do it unless we can out-fight, or out-guess him."

Jean fell silent. Shady waited. It was when things looked most hopeless that Jean always came forth with some flashing plan of action. After some minutes of silence, Shady raised a flute held in his hand and piped an inquiring "Where Do We Go From Here?"

Jean gave a short, indulgent laugh. We go to Shaman's Lagoon, you big anthropoid! For fish."

"Hold everything, Skipper! I've been hearing about that hellhole. Bottleneck entrance, foul, shallow bottom, millrace currents that a boat can hardly navigate. Sure, the place is full of herring, but Moose Hardy says it simply can't be fished."

"It has been fished. By Indians, years ago, when the run failed elsewhere. I've been talking to old Ish, Katlean's great-uncle. He knows every rock and current in Shaman's Lagoon. He'll teach our young Inland the trick of fishing it. We'll run the whole Indian fleet in there and park it—What's the matter?"

Shady was shaking his head. "Not two boats in that fleet could make headway against even a four-knot tide."

"True; but between tides, twice a day, there's a forty-minute period of slack water. That's when our Indians will do their seining."

"But will they get enough fish,

After a sidelong glance at the silent Reynall, he resumed his soliloquy. "General Sherman has something in that classic remarks of his. If this fish war, for instance, hadn't boiled up in our faces, we might be up yonder with the little red-head, right now. Herding our dogs through a minuet, or the Suzy Q, or whatever she has coming off."

When this, too, elicited no response, he slightly raised his voice. "You know, Jean, I could go for that spunky little sorrel-top. I'm really no draft horse on a dance floor. If I once got that little spitfire into my arms, I believe I could—"

"Slow it, Shady!"

Jean came to a stop and faced the other. For a moment in the dusk their eyes held; then Shady breathed, incredulously, "So that's it! You, that's ducked the passes of femmes from Saratoga to Shanghai—sunk now by a pint-sized thoroughbred who treats you like dirt. Not—seriously, Skipper?"

Jean Reynall nodded. Ever since we were kids. I didn't really know how seriously, until I met her again, and, turning, stood looking up at the lights of Echo House.

Shady sighed sympathetically. "Tough break, fella. I suppose she won't let you come within shouting distance so long as we're at war with her old wolf of a grandpa."

"But I must see her!" Jean burst out savagely. I want to talk to her about something that has nothing to do with my personal feelings. Something that threatens her. She ignored my first warning, and I've got to find some way to impress her with the danger of the situation she and her bullheaded old grandfather have slid into. You see, I'm sort of handicapped by—Oh, darn it, Shady I can't even go into it, even with you." He thrust a cigarette into his mouth and lit it. Then

"By—my—sacred—crankshaft! Skipper, I believe you'll pull it off."

"We've got to," Jean retorted grimly. "And the longer we can keep O'Moore in ignorance of our scheme, the better our chances. If this fine weather holds until the offshore run starts, we might send a boat or two out to sea to make a bluff at deep-water fishing, just as a blind."

"Even in fine weather, it'd be pretty chancy for those old crates—except, maybe, Katlean's Scundoo."

"Well, we'll worry about that when the time comes. Just now I've got another problem to..." He left the sentence unfinished, and abruptly resumed his nervous pacing of the deck.

The big engineer's eyes studied the tall silhouette, moving in the dusk, then shifted speculatively to the gray facade of Echo House. "One time I read where a doctor prescribed ballroom dancing for a case of edgy nerves," he drawled, with calculated irrelevance.

How are men enslaved?

STOP and think just a moment. A nation cannot be enslaved except by ITS OWN or by some other government.

It is Germany's GOVERNMENT, and Italy's and Russia's GOVERNMENTS, which have taken away men's freedom.

We, ourselves, fought our first American war because OUR OWN GOVERNMENT—the government of GEORGE III—threatened our liberties!

We have rejected governors, mayors and even presidents because they were risking our freedom, infringing our rights, or tolerating rackets or graft that put free men in chains.

Why do not the citizens of Germany and Italy rise and throw off the shackles? The answer in one sentence is: The GOVERNMENT controls the PRESS in those countries. Thus they control what people believe.

In America, the job you give the press is that of GUARDIAN. You demand that it WATCH THE GOVERNMENT. If the government serves you well, you are to be told so. If it serves you badly, the telling is to be just as swift and definite.

It never hurts to watch and report upon the doings of an honest man. He seldom objects, so long as the truth is told about him. But when you hear a politician claiming that the newspapers are "after him," put it down that he will BEAR WATCHING. You can thank your stars that there is a force which can bring him quickly to time—A FORCE HE CANNOT CURB!

The public holds an "election" of its NEWSPAPERS every day—simply by buying or not buying. The same public can't get at its government except in one, two, four, or even six-year intervals. And even then, it can know what the true state of affairs is only if the press is free to report ALL THE NEWS.

When you realize that government alone can enslave the nation, a free and uncontrolled press seems mighty important. It becomes the eyes and the ears of all the rest of us who busy ourselves with our private affairs.

Put this down as the first barrier against dictatorship:

NO NATION WAS EVER ENSLAVED BY ITS OWN GOVERNMENT WHERE THE PRESS WAS COMPLETELY FREE!

Over 300 leading newspaper publishers join together to bring you this weekly message about the function of the press in a free nation. Newspaper Publishers Committee, 420 Lexington Ave., New York.

suddenly, pitched his cigarette over-side and started for the ganfipank. "I'm going up to Echo House now," he decided, "and make her listen to me."

Bowels Now Regular Without the Aid of Laxatives And Stomach Is Like New.

MRS. W. J. THOMPSON

"For ten years I have had a very stubborn case of constipation," says Mrs. W. J. Thompson of Mechanicsville, Ohio, R. R. No. 2, near Salem.

"Before I started taking TONJON it was necessary for me to take laxatives regularly every night. I suffered terribly from acid indigestion, and in turn, heartburn, gassy stomach and shortness of breath. There was always a burning sensation in the pit of my stomach and I had frequent dizzy spells."

"My kidneys acted much too often and I would have to relieve them about three times every night. These discomforts were causing me to be worried, restless and run-down. I spent many sleepless nights. Then I started using TONJON, and after a short time there was no doubt but that it was just what I needed. My bowels are regular now without the aid of laxatives and my stomach feels like new. I really enjoy doing my work now. The splendid results TONJON has given me can never be measured in money, in nothing but my health. It is worth a lot."
